

Biography

Tomislav Zoran Durin, Ambassador (retired)

-Born: July 16, 1953 in Jasenovо - Republic of Serbia. AP Vojvodina

Career:

- Since 2006, he has been serving in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia as head of the Security Service, later the Department of Security (DS) and the Head of Secretariat Of information and documentation (SID), later the Department of Analytics and Support to Foreign Policy Planning (OASP)

- 2010-2013. Accredited Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Serbia to the Republic of Macedonia

- 2013-2017. Member of the Emergency Analysis and Assessment Department of the KMFA - Head of Analysis and Documentation Group OASP

- All official grades in career are excellent - He was a candidate for the Assistant MSP of the Security Policy Sector. All the formalities in the Personnel Management Office of the Government of the Republic of Serbia are finished. He also was a candidate for the position of the Ambassador to Islamic Republic of Iran

Military career in the Ministry of Defense and the Armed Forces:

- In military diplomacy, he took over the duties of the Defense Attaché in the State of Israel (Established Military Relations) from 2001 to 2006. In the Middle East was in charge of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine and Syria,

- in the Ministry of Defense (Military Intelligence Service and Military Intelligence Agency) performed analytical, managerial, planning and control duties (in particular, cooperation with foreign and domestic special services)

- Conducted command, operational, teaching and other managerial duties in military units, commands, institutions and services

-Education: - 1974-1978. Military Academy, Belgrade

- 1978-1983. Faculty of National Defense, Belgrade
 - 1986-1988. General Staff Military Academy, Moscow
 - 1991-1993. General Staff Military Academy JNA, Belgrade
 - 2006-2013. Master of Science in Security, Defense and Protection, Belgrade University -
 - passed the Diplomatic consular exam (Diplomatic Academy of MFA)
 - For several years a member of the Council of Faculty of Security University of Belgrade, nominated for 2021-22
 - At the Faculty of Political Science (American Studies), Academy of Nacional Security BIA and the Diplomatic Academy of the MFA, engaged as a lecturer on current topics and events in the Middle East and the issues of security of diplomacy in general.
 - All official grades in career are excellent - He has completed a review and translation of several security books published by the Faculty of Security of the BU, the Police Academy. Foreign
- Languages: - English and Russian - Computer knowledge, Microsoft windows programs, Internet. - Married, wife Ivona, a graduate pharmacist, three children - Hobbies: photography, cycling, hunting, fishing, shooting.